

THE MONEY MARKET.

FRIDAY, May 30—P. M.

The Legislature having made Decoration Day a legal holiday, the Stock and Gold Exchanges and Banks suspended business, so that there is nothing to report from "the street."

The Erie Railway Company report weekly earnings commencing Nov. 1, 1872, as follows:

	1873.	1872.
Stock	$455,514	$420,234
For week ending May 23	9,628,756	9,391,136
Total earnings since Nov. 1, $16,694,400
Increase for week.....	3,610
Increase for month and three weeks to date.....	251,230

The annual statement of the Phenix Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, presented in another column, gives a flattering exhibit of the results of last year's business. The receipts were $3,500,000 expenses, including death claims, dividends, and for lapsed and surrendered policies, $2,000,000. The net assets at the close of the year were nearly $8,250,000. The company now have in force 33,020 policies, insuring $71,910,000. Compared with the other Connecticut companies the Phenix during the past year has exceeded them all in its business, as will be seen by a comparative table accompanying the statement in another column.

The June coupons of the Metropolitan Gas Light Company will be paid at the National Bank of the Commonwealth in this city.

The Philadelphia stock market is unsettled; Pennsylvania Sixes, 109; Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, 24; Reading Railroad, 51; Pennsylvania Railroad, 54; Gold, 118.
